LOST THEIR MONEY

Through the Faithlessness of a Sworn Official of the County of

At the chancery court a bill has been filed against Ex-Public-Guardian R. B. Miller and sureties on his official bond—J. M. Cannon, A. B. Hill, S. E. Gardner, Wm. Bridge-water and A. Goldsby, by A. S. Myers, next friend of the minor children of Samuel D. 10c per yard. McClure. The bill alleges that said McClure died February 1, 1877, and in April of the same year defendant R. B. Miller, as public guardian, was appointed guardian of the heirs; that in September, 1877, Miller collected of the Bluff City Insurance company $572 10, and in November, 1877, collected of the Knickerbocker Life Insurance company $829 13; total, $1401 23, which moneys be longed to his wards. In December, 1879, said guardian filed in the probate court of She:by nty what purported to be an annual set-nent, in which he admits the collection of hese amounts, and seeks therein to charge omplainants, his wards, with various sums which he pretends were expended largely in excess of their income. In December, 1879, the clerk reports upon said settlements received $1401; interest on same, $184 35; with $284 35, leaving a balance of $1301 23.

In the settlement the clerk reported that the guardian claimed $150 compensation, and of this the court allowed $100, and upon this confirmed, this leaving a balance due his wards of $1201 23, which said sum is still due and owing to them by the said R. B. Miller. In October, 1875, said Miller executed a bond for $10,000, with M. Cannon, E. Marshall and N. with Charles H. Franz, A. B. Hill, S. F.

Gardiner, William Bridgewater, E. Marshall A. Goldsby and J. N. Staten as sureties which two bonds were to cover his term of office from October 4, 1875, to October 4, 1879, during which term he collected the B. Forrest, Charles H. Franz and J. N. Staten have died and their estates are wholly asolvent, hence they, nor those of their rep sentatives, are made defendants. The said R. B. Miller is now longer public administrator of Shelby county, nor of the complain-ants, and he is wholly insolvent, and his securities above-named are of doubtful solvency. Complainants therefore pray for a deworth 75c per yd.

They (complainants) have repeatedly demanded of Miller to pay the amount so due, but he has refused to pay the same to them, or to anyone for them. The said Miller has been ordered by the probate court to settle his said guardianship, and pay the funds in his hands belonging to said minors, and he has failed and refused so to do. Complainants pray for process to issue and be served.
